Mr. Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Gates:

As of April 13, 1987, Chief Inspector Anthony C. Odom became Chief of the Threat Analysis Division, following the transfer of Robert Leibscher to the Office of Inspector General, Department of State.

Tony has a wide range of experience with the Marshals Service including both operational and management positions in the field. Through his experience, Tony is aware of the importance of inter-agency cooperation. Therefore, he is committed to ensuring that intelligence, and appropriate information sharing, continue to be an important function of the Threat Analysis Division.

As I have stated in the past, the continued support provided by your office has enabled the Threat Analysis Division to become a very effective unit within the Marshals Service.

Please contact Tony if he can be of any assistance to you in the future. He can be reached at (703) 285-1250.

Sincerely,

HOWARD SAFIR
Associate Director
for Operations
